Material Facts

All material facts must be disclosed. Failure to do so could invalidate the insurance in connection with this hiring. A material fact is one that is likely to influence an insurer in the assessment and acceptance of the proposal e.g. a young or inexperienced driver or any offence, (including non-motor related offences such as fraud, robbery theft or handling stolen goods) or prosecutions pending, or infirmities of any driver. Material facts must be disclosed in relation to yourself and all other persons who are to be insured. If you are in any doubt as to whether a fact is material, then it should be disclosed to the insurer. It is an offence under the Road Traffic Acts to make any false statement or withhold any material information for the purposes of obtaining a certificate of motor insurance. If any changes in circumstances arise during the period of insurance cover, please provide your insurer with details.

A specimen copy of the policy wording is available on request.
